

Ann Landers

I entertained a couple in our home. When they left, the woman said, "We had a lovely time. And now you must come to see US sometime."

My husband has been nagging me ever since to go visit these people. I keep telling him we'll go when we get an invitation. He insists we HAVE been invited and repeats the "Come and see us sometime" line.

I have told him repeatedly that I don't consider this an invitation but he claims I am thin-skinned and too formal.

If I am wrong about this I wish you would tell me. If my husband is wrong, please tell him so he will get off my back. Thank you.

—NOT SURE

Dear Not: "Come and see us sometime" is a polite phrase equivalent to "How are you." About 95% of the people who ask "How are you?" don't really care. And the same goes for people who say "Come and see us sometime."

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Club Honors Member On Anniversary

Mrs. Leila Everley, longtime member of the Arts and Crafts Club, was honored at the recent meeting of the club, celebrating her golden wedding anniversary.

The club party was held at the home of Mrs. Fay Parks, on Eldorado, with Mrs. Maybel Banks serving as co-hostess. Tables were beautifully decorated in gold and blue, noting the anniversary.

Refreshments were served after which a decorated anniversary cake ornamented with gold wedding bells and the inscription "Happy Golden Wedding Anniversary" was placed before the honoree. She was also presented with a gift from the club.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Charlotte Outcalt, president.

Attending the party were Mmes. Maybel Banks, Rolive Bever, Helen Carpenter, Florence Childs, Vivian Cook, Leila Everley, Ruth Hardin, Ruth Kilgore, Mary McDonald, Addie Parks, Fran Snodgrass, Sybil Moffitt, Hazel Ward, Hazel Fossum, Melvina Beckwith, Verna Hamilton, Zelma Miller, Ruth Mohler.

Guests were Linda Fossum, Virginia Montague and Leah Arterburn, a former member now living in Camarillo.

The next club meeting will be held at the home of Mary McDonald, with Ruth Kilgore and Zelma Miller, hostesses.

ROMANCE OF THE ISLANDS... In the mood for their annual luau set for Saturday evening, May 25, at the Western Club are these members of the Torrance Y-Wives, from left, Mmes. David Ponsonby, treasurer; Bill R. Hamilton, program chairman; and Bill McKim, a member of the decorating committee. Tickets are now on sale and may be secured from an Y-Wives member or by calling the Torrance YWCA. (Herald Photo)

Annual Y-Wives Luau Scheduled for May 25

Torrance Y-Wives will sponsor their annual luau on Saturday evening, May 25, at the Western Avenue Country Club, 120th and Western. The affair, to which the public is invited will begin at 7:30 p.m.

A Polynesian dinner will be served buffet style and an interesting program has been planned. Guests will dance to music furnished by Charles Wallace and his combo. On the program are solo and group dances to be presented by Y-Wives members. Those attending are asked to dress in island attire as a prize will be awarded for the best costume. Numerous door prizes will be given during the evening.

Tickets are now on sale and may be reserved by calling the Torrance YWCA or by contacting any member of the Y-Wives.

Beta Sigma Board Charts For New Year

It's smooth sailing ahead for the newly elected board of the South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi as they chartered a well planned course at a beautiful "Bog Voyage" buffet luncheon served by their skipper Mrs. Bert Whited of Gardena. The calendar for the year was planned and social activities scheduled. The council will sponsor a garden friendship tea on May 26 at the home of Mrs. Thomas Ford. Honored guests will be the newly-formed Alpha Alpha Omega chapter of Torrance. The crew decided to continue meeting at the Alondra Club next year and planned to use the World International theme "This Is the Way."

A discussion was held with regard to the state convention at Fresno and final plans were formed for the planned sessions while there. Mrs. Whited participated in one of the many interesting forums on Saturday, and greeted the large contingent from the South Bay area.

The next board meeting will be held in June at the home of Mrs. Gene Olson, Gardena. Participating in the luncheon and board meeting were Mmes. Jay Echeberger, Robert Marble, James Barnhart, Milt Ventress, Henry Jacobsen, Andrew Foster, Robert Kane and Gene Olson.
